“ A part of me has passed on to Heaven. Henry and I worked together at the Herald while I was in high school. He was a man of great integrity. He respected every man, even those that treated him unjustly, knowing his character was solid and others may have had their individual issues. He always made me feel good about humanity. It was a honor having a friend as warm and sincere as Henry. God bless you Buddy!

“ Today They Laid My Cousin Henry Cherry To Rest :

It's with a sad and heavy, heavy, heavy, heart that I have to say "Good Bye" to some one that meant so much to me.

In life you meet a lot of people a long the way. But, not often do you meet some one as special as my cousin Henry aka King Cherry.

You were eleven years my senior - but - you never treated me that way. You always treated me as an equal and with respect. You'd always listen to what I had to say when I called from PHILADELPHIA and we would talk for hours, reminiscing about our younger years D.J ing, playing music, working hard, trying to get our hustle on. Thank you for being a great big cousin, adviser, mentor, friend and overall a family member that I could count on.

I'm going to Miss You Cousin..

So I won't say Good Bye - I will say Far well & See You Later..

“ Heartfelt sympathy for the family. I worked with Henry at the News Herald. He could label newspapers faster than anyone. Loved to go to circulation and just watch him label.

May you have a peace that only God can give. Emily Hall

“ I met Henry long ago, as a high school student. Lost in his history was the fact that Henry was the lead singer and guitarist for The Keynotes, the premier party band in Ahoskie and surrounding areas. He had hired my friend and classmate Charlie to play bass guitar. Charlie convinced him to hire me as his sax player. I was only 14, but Henry saw my potential and convinced my parents to let me be part of the band. It was a seminal and defining moment in my growth and development as a musician. I learned so much about the music business from Henry. I was part of the group until I graduated high school. He helped me immensely. I never thought he'd stop playing music, even after he got his AC business going. I last saw him as my band was playing at the Watermelon Festival in Murfreesboro last year. He always wanted to play with me one more time... and now, sadly, that cannot happen. I will miss my old friend and mentor. He was very special to me and to everyone he met. Rest In Heaven, My Friend.

“ About two weeks ago Mr Cherry came to my brother in law home to service his AC..At that time i had the chance to carry on a conversation laugh and talk with him. On Friday he was scheduled to come to my home and service my AC as well...I called him doing the day Friday to let him know when i would be home, he then told me that it dont matter what time he would be there. But it was getting late on Friday evening and i was beginning to wonder as to what was happening. But he sent someone else in his place on Friday night and i was then told that Mr Cherry had gotten sick doing the day. But Mr Cherry made sure that my AC got serviced even though he couldnt make it... What a good man!! May God Bless the entire Cherry Family and give you all what you need to get through these trying times.. ..I am sadden
