“ Mr T.J. was a very special man that did so much in the community. He gave of himself willingly and helped out where he could. He showed me the example of how a man should live. Personally, he would give me rides to church, school events, and take me to McDonalds and the movies with his family dince my family didn't have a car. Rest in peace, servant of God. I will always remenber you.

“ Mr. TJ would make my day when I would get to work at Rich Square Nursing home and he would be singing I Won't Complain. He was a very kind hearted man and it was a joy to have been one of his CNA's. He will be missed.
