“ Yvonne Brown and I have very fond memories of Annie Jean when the Williams family lived in Cofield. They were our (the Melton family's) next door neighbors. When the song by Big Joe Turner "Honey Hush" was a hit, I could hear Annie Jean hollering "Honey Hush" next door. She really knew how to emphasize. Yvonne and Annie Jean were in the same class and remembers how she would bring candy to school and everyone would be buying candy bars. If we didn't have the money she would trust us to bring the money later. We have other memories of our teenage years in Cofield and adult years in New York. She will be truly missed. ”
