“ To my family, Sister took lots of time with me , walking me home less than 50 yds from her house because I was afraid of my own shadow (lol). She was on the kindest people I have known, never complaining and always caring for other people. I kept her in my prayers as I will continue to keep the rest of the family in my love and prayers###imported-begin##Ella (Ethel Ray) Watford###imported-end##

“ Freddie, thanks for sharing your mother, our Aunt Annie with me. Those summers of taking care of me as if I was her own child. The hot meals, fixing my hair in those crazy ponytails (LOL), watching The Young and the Restless (which I still do). Aunt Annie will be missed, she loved on a lot of children and again I want to say thank you for sharing her. Granddaddy, Grandma, Uncle Nelson, Aunt Hattie, my Daddy, Aunt Jeanetta, Uncle Andrew, and Uncle Eddie have welcomed Aunt Annie with open arms! Love you cousin and I pray your strength in the Lord.
