“ Although much too short, it was a privilege for me to work with Barbara. I'm so sorry for the loss of a friend and colleague. I remember her as a devoted daughter who moved back home to assist her mother with her father and brother who were in poor health at the time. Barbara was a very caring individual who was concerned about her family and others. I know that God will provide strength to her daughter, Michelle, and other family members at this time. May the family find peace during this difficult time and find comfort in the special memories of Barbara.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. - Matthew 5:4
