“ I have many memories of being a child traveling with my Mom and Brother to Murfreesboro. Aunt Bea was always a part of our destination, and I loved going to see her, and my Grandpa Paul Langston Jr! She was a special woman, patient and kind, and she will be missed. Love you Aunt Bea 💙 My deepest condolences to her immediate family.

Bea, you are definitely missed, you were the most patient person, especially with your sweet sister. Working with your family taught myself and my children so much. 🌹🌹🌹 We still love you and the rest of your amazing family.

“ My Aunt Bea had looked out for me as a Child, since I could remember in 3rd grade through high school. Her Mother Elizabeth, my Grandmother Meter, and Aunt Bea were the family ‘rocks’ that kept me grounded. Heaven’s now rejoicing to add another Beautiful Angel! Love Always & sincere condolences, Dianna Langston Williams & Family.

“ Sending love, and prayers of comfort, strength, and healing to my cousins, Joyce, Michael, Kenneth, and James during the loss of another family member, Bea. Joyce and Curt, job well done as primary caregivers. James, Gayle, Kenny, and Tammy Let us be reminded, that to be absent from the body is to be with the Lord. Bea is rejoicing !!!!!!! Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. "The Watford girls", have been reunited.

“ My cousin Bea was a shining light always. She wore her heart on her sleeve as evidenced by her radiant smile. Her concern was always for others first. I will miss her but she set the model I will emulate. Good bye for now until we meet again! Dr. Melvin C. Lawrence
