“ Dad loved baseball. He was a good player in High school and wanted to continue in college. Instead he played short stop for his work team at Roadway Express in Weequahic Park Newark, NJ. I remember those bright orange shorts like they were playing yesterday...perhaps they did.

After the games, dad would take my sister to the bar around the corner and to eat a hot dog. We were not allowed to sit at the bar, there were chairs in the back table where he had to remain seen and not heard.

I played softball all 4 years at East Orange High School in East Orange, New Jersey. Dad attended quite a few of my home games despite no longer living with us. We weren't that good, but wow it was nice looking at the bleachers and seeing your dad.

I could go for a hot dog in the back of a bar...it probably won't be the same.
