“ While I knew Brenda growing up in Mapleton, and saw her as decent and respectable young lady, I really got to know her when she moved to Georgia. A caring Mother, always giving the best life had to offer for her son Lil Kent. She treated me like a brother rather than a brother-in-law. Which really spoiled me because I never had a sister. Ms. Dorthy and Leon raised beautiful children. I know that going forward Brenda will be missed --her smile, her laughter and her overall personally. I thank God that I got a chance to know Brenda and I Loved her as a sister. May God bless and keep Lil Kent and all members of her family.##imported-begin##Roosevelt Harris (PT)##imported-end##

“ Brenda & I grew up together & went to school together. Sprout's Drive-In was our favorite place to hang out, but we grew up as kids tend to do. I also visited her a few times here in Raleigh & I had the privilege of praying with her. Glad I was able to be there for her in some way. She will be missed. Please remember that earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. May God walk your family through this season of grief. Love, Renee##imported-begin##Renee Boone Oliver##imported-end##
