“ When Great Trees Fall
Maya Angelou

*When great trees fall,
rocks on distant hills shudder,
lions hunker down
in tall grasses,
and even elephants
lumber after safety.*

*When great trees fall
in forests,
small things recoil into silence,
their senses
eroded beyond fear.*

*When great souls die,
the air around us becomes light, rare, sterile.
We breathe, briefly.
Our eyes, briefly,
see with
a hurtful clarity.
Our memory, suddenly sharpened,
examines,
gnaws on kind words
unsaid,
promised walks
never taken.*

*Great souls die and our reality, bound to them, takes leave of us.
Our souls,
dependent upon their
nurture,*

*now shrink, wizened.
Our minds, formed
and informed by their radiance, fall away.
We are not so much maddened as reduced to the unutterable ignorance of dark, cold
caves.*

*And when great souls die,
after a period peace blooms, slowly and always irregularly. Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration.
Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us.
They existed. They existed.
We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.*

You were loved, appreciated, and respected. We will miss you dear uncle !! Rest in PEACE and POWER !
