I will never forget Cassandra we met in a hair salon and we found out we shared the same birthday Jan. 22, i was older but when we saw each other we would always ask each other what did we do on our birthday. She was always smiling....her words were Hey Mrs Melton what you been doing. She was a sweet person...

“ NeNe I'm going to miss you so much. You always had a smile to share whenever I saw you. I can't remember a time when I didn't see those pearly whites! Take your rest now and know that everyone in the family will miss you, but we will be alright! We now have another familiar angel up there looking after us! Spread your wings wide, and 🕊️ fly high! We love you very much!

“ Cousins some of us have lost our mother, some of us have lost our father, some of us have lost siblings and it is hard because we want them here with us but the Lord will give you all the strength to get through this. Some days will be harder but lean on the Lord. He will not let you fall. We can see our love ones again when we read our Bible and put the teachings to work. Love Gloree
