“ Mr. Ransome was my Spanish teacher at a school named Nannie Helen Burroughs in Washington, DC in the early 80s. He was a phenomenal teacher who was no non-sense. I remember him sharing with our class about when he knew he could speak Spanish fluently (when he had dreams only speaking Spanish). I thought about him today and was sad to learn of his passing. I pray for your peace and comfort. I thank God for the impact he had on my life. ”
