“ Well let me start by saying I am so sorry for your lost. I am Lynette Turner the neice of Delores White from Bouck Ave in Bronx, NY and 8 remember when Cookie and her family moved next door to my Aunt and we knew each other for 37 years. We use to all play together. She was such a sweet humble woman. I have a picture of you and your brother that I took of you both when we were all younger . Sleep n peace my sister. No more suffering from pain. Love Lynette , now residing in Atlanta, GA

“ Chevonne was a beautiful gift to this world. The memories of her make me smile. She was a bright light of laughter, understanding and fun for many now and then during our days at St. Augustine College. God has added an awesome angel to his army to watch over all of us! My condolences to her family.❤️ Love you!

“ I enjoyed serving with Ms. Sharpe on the Pitt Academy intake meetings when she used to conduct them. She was swift & straight to the point when she ran those meetings. She also helped run Twilight classes @ DH Conley to assist students to obtain credits. She loved her students & had a heart for those with challenges. She would let them know they can be successful despite their background. I appreciated her honesty. My prayers are for the Sharpe Family & know she was a jewel to Pitt County Schools. “ *A couple years ago, Ms. Sharpe worked at DH Conley in the afternoons as the Twilight coordinator assisting students who had failed a class in finding success with a second online chance. She was a hard worker and was tireless in her support for those students she felt had no voice. At the same time, she gave hard love to those students who were not working to their full potential.
