“ I can't believe that you're gone. You were my brother. We spent a lot of time together just talking. You made me laugh and sometimes you even got on my nerves. No matter what, you were always there for me. Things won't be the same without you. I miss you so much. There so much more I want to say but the words just won't come out. Until we meet again, Rest Easy my BROTHER.

“ Chris,

I love and miss you brother. I remember when you protected me in middle school to make sure no one was bullying me, and I thank you for that. There comes a time in life when we all have to make this journey and you have completed yours. May God Bless Your Soul and forever keep you in his care.

Until we meet again Rest in Peace my brother.

“ Chris,

As kids we were thick as thieves we played, we fought, we laughed. As we grew older and went our separate ways, we communicated little with each other over the years. You are my brother and I will always love you, no matter how long it's been since we saw each other. I never even got the chance to say goodbye. You have gained your wings and now you have been reunited with mom and dad.

Rest in Peace brother until I see you again.

Stacy,

I just realized today that the obituary for Christopher Winborne that I saw in the R-C News-Herald was your and Derrick's brother, and Earle & Buddy's son.

Please know that Don, Win, Elizabeth and I are thinking of you and Derrick.

I lost my oldest brother 11 years ago, and he was only a little older than Chris. I know and understand the pain you feel.

Take care,
