“ As a child I would often sit on the porch with my Uncle Clarence, boy did he have stories to tell and he could make me laugh with some of the corniest jokes. We would come and visit Grandma and the family and friends every summer as a child. I live in Texas now, but I will hold on to the good memories forever. Rest in peace Uncle Clarence ❤️ your sister Areatha, brother-in-law Bill Connie and Billy

“ I would often stop by to check on my Uncle Clarence whenever I was home. He resided at the home of his late mother which was located beside my parents' home on Hwy. 13 so I grew up with my uncle as a part of my life. I saw the good and the not so good, but I will always remember his care and concern toward me. When I was at my lowest he never shunned me. He would always offer a kind, supportive word during many of our encounters. He led a life built on being helpful to others because he knew what it was like to be in need. I will greatly miss my Uncle Clarence. He recognized best what it is like to be me.
