“ My condolences to the Hall Family. I remember "Tootie", his brother Terry and my Uncle's Darnell and Sam being together growing up. They were always in to something (smile). God again has called his child to heaven. The second one for Mrs. Annie. We know God makes no mistakes! He has joyfully joined his dad and brother in God's Kingdom. May he rest in peace. To the Hall family, be a peace knowing he is at peace! Love you all, Pam Winborne

“ I’ve known Cleveland Trumane Hall (Tuti as we so fondly called him) since his birth. Our families were next door neighbors and his father was as a brother to me and Tuti, Terry and Corey were as my own. Although I am grieved at this time my heart and sympathy are with Annie Laura and Corey in the loss of a loving son and brother. I pray that you will find strength and comfort in our all knowing and loving God.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Cleveland in the Air Force at the 633d Communications Squadron. He was a respected leader that genuinely cared for those he served with during both his Air Force enlisted and civilian careers. The impact he made on those of us lucky enough to know him was immense. My deepest condolences to Cleveland's family, friends, and colleagues - you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ We met in 1974 as freshmen at Winston-Salem State University. We were roommates that year. He was outgoing, fun and intelligent. We had great times during our four years at WSSU, and those memories will never be forgotten. Everyone in our Family at WSSU lovingly called him “Stayblind.” My thoughts and prayers are with the Hall family. May my good friend forever Rest In Peace.

To the Hall Family! I send you prayers and thoughts on the lost of a dear husband, father, son, brother and friend Cleveland Hall! My heart is heavy as I began to reflect on the times that were spent with "Blind" as we called him! I still see his ever present smile and hear his laughter as we shared time together as students and fraternity brothers in life! Rest easy my Brother! You have reached the Golden Shores! May God Bless Your Family !
