This lady will truly be missed. She had such a pleasant smile and I could always call her late at night and we would talk till 3am about so many things. I told her I thought at one time she was Auntie Cora. She lived around the corner from my church in Harlem, New York for years and was a great friend to my choir member Jannie. RIP Mrs. Cora we will meet again.

“ Cora was the smile I had to have each Sunday for ten years before I played for the choir. She boosted my morale and everyone around her. I will miss her greatly though I hadn't seen her lately. Flowers like her are rare on earth and only present in God's garden. Dr. Melvin C. Lawrence
