“ Growing up from a child to an adult living 2 houses from Mrs Cora and family, you couldn't ask for a better God fearing woman. It was always a pleasure to visit and sit down to talk with her. Mrs Cora was the sweetest woman I have ever known and will truly be missed. My condolences to the Parker family.

“ I met Mrs. Parker only once, at the home of her son and my brother-in-law Ronnie. Her friendly and Christ like spirit was readily noticeable and enjoyed. I will forever remember her as a child of God and find comfort in knowing she is safe in God's arm.

Sorry to hear of your loss. Your mother was a God fearing woman of God. God needed another rose in his rose garden so he looked around and saw Ms. Cora so he picked her to go in the garden. Praying much strength for the family.
