“ I have many memories of Ms. Cora. The one that sticks in my memory the most is one Christmas I went by Issy's house with a friend. Issy and I were talking up a storm and he shushed us because the "stories" were on. Ms. Cora hadn't said anything but she was very pleased that he shushed us because she and Aunt Gladys were trying to watch as well. Then they and him jabbered away about the characters, plots, etc.

When Renne, Pam and I were girls, we would sometimes ride our bike to her house. She always had a nice cold Coke for us or would give us fifty cents to go to Ruffin Brothers. Thank you for your love and kindness Aunt Cora. May God shower your family with strength and courage during this time.
