“ To the family and friends of Mrs. Cynthia James Riddick. These words cannot express the sorrow you may be feeling at this time. However, I do know that the way you loved and the great times you shared will always be an everlasting memory. It will give you the strength and the healing to move forward. "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning" Please know that you have my deepest sympathy. I love you and will be praying with you for your morning to come soon.

Love Always,

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Cynthia J. Riddick. I always admired the relationship you girls had with each other and Miss Almeta. I know that now your hearts are heavy and you can't imagine tomorrow without her. However, God will give you that peace that surpasses all understanding. You will also treasure all the good times you shared. On behalf of the Simmons family, I send our heartfelt condolences. We pray that God will comfort you in the days ahead.
