“ Damien

Nothing I have experienced in my lifetime could have prepared me for this. I am broken a big piece of me is missing it left with you and I know I can't get you back neither will that part of me ever come back. So many thoughts so many memories so many images in my head that just flow and flood me until I feel like I am drowning.

My child I miss you so much my son my heart I am missing a big part of myself. I love you with as my heart and soul and they are both hurting right now . Mommy loves you with every fiber of my being

I know you feel no pain you don't have to struggle to breath or walk or talk , you are truly the free spirit you were when you were here and I know you are happy and wouldn't come back if you could but the selfishness in me wants you back 51 years wasn't enough.'Tell grandma, grandpa and Purcell I love them ,and miss them too. Till we meet again Mommy
