“ Fredrick, one of my first friends in life. Always a laugh whenever we visited each other as children. For most of my childhood I thought monsters lived in a large drainage hole a few houses down from Aunt Ruth’s house. Every single time I came over you and Poiter would take me to that spot and put a stick in the hole and pretend that something was pulling at the other end of the stick and every single time I would take off running.

The laughs were good, our memories were better and you my cousin were the absolute best.

Glad you were allowed to be my cousin.

Rest now.

“ I remember you always greeting me with a big smile and a hug no matter the time or place. I never saw you without a smile on your face. Oh yeah and you telling and teaching me how to order them cds from Columbia house. You truly had a love for music and can't forget how you were always rigging up a speaker system on hwy 305. Rest easy Uncle. You will truly be missed by your family and friends !
