“ Our deep sympathy to all family members and dear friends of De'auna. Our loving and caring God gives hope, strength and comfort, through his wonderful promises of eradicating all things that bring unwanted tears to our eyes due to imperfection (ie): old-aged, sickness, pain and death. Read and meditate on the following scriptures- Job 33:25 & Isa. 33:24 & John 5:28,29 & Re.21:4) May God give you a peaceful mind and a calm heart as you endure the grieving and healing process.##imported-begin##Ken & Jewel##imported-end##

“ Deauna I could not be there today to give you a formal fairwell but you are in my heart. I will keep the memory that I have of you as that bubblely little high schooler bouncing around Hertford County High full of goals and aspirations and that big smile you used to always share. I am so proud to have been a friend of yours and a Sister in Christ. Two of your dreams have definitely become a reality: (1) Your 3 beautiful girls and (2) Getting the Opportunity to see Jesus face to face. Rest In Paradise Sweet Angel until I bid life farewell and we meet again.##imported-begin##Mona##imported-end##

“ Dear Sister Lily

My prayers and condolences go out to you and the family. Denuna was a very sweet spirit and I thank God I had the blessing to nurture her in her early walk with the Lord. I remember the times I would drop her off home and we would spend time outside discussing the things of God and being able to encourage her to keep on keeping on and follow her dreams. Her desire to be apart of the Arm Forces and be a great mom came to pass. We have lost a beautiful person but Heaven has gain an angel. I will keep you, your husband, son and the children in prayer. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. Continue to look to the hills for your help, your help comes from the Lord##imported-begin##Pastor Barbara Artis##imported-end##
