“ Oh Lord, save me from drowning in my own tears and at the same time Lord please hear one of Donald's older cousins cry! I shout out loudly, "Thank you oh Lord for Donald and that he was not just a passerby!" You ordered his steps and showed him where to walk; you gave him a strong voice so people would listen when he sang and talked! You made him to be a valued family man, neighbor and good friend!

We, his family and friends will miss Donald and at the same time take pleasure in knowing that he is now with You in Heaven!

Donald was my classmate and childhood friend. He was very sweet and kindhearted. All of us sung in the choir at Mt. Moriah Church. My condolences go out to the entire Sharp family, especially his twin Ronald. I know you all will miss him and my heart goes out to each of you, but God makes no mistakes and he is in a better place right. We will see him again. God Bless you during this most difficult time.

“ Your faith and strength were an inspiration to all of us. I thank you for your encouragement, sense of humor, and welcoming me as your "sister-in-law" all these years. We shared some wonderful times with Stephen and although you'll be sorely missed here on earth, I know the celebration has just begun with you by his side. I will look for you in the choir of angels. Until we meet again....Love always, Lisa
