Growing up with my cousins was fun, how we use to go over each other homes was fun also because we were happy to see each other. So often time passes by and we all grow up and go our separate ways, but memories will never go away neither the love we all shared. Rest peacefully cousin. You will be missed.

Sleep well my sister, this one is hard for me but I know now your worries and stress is all over now. You have reunited with Mom, Sis Shirley and Jerry and I know you all are having a heavenly ball. Please look after us down here and someday we will see each other again I loved you then when we where young and I love you now. Always and forever.

“ From the first day that I met you, you had a present about you and I enjoyed that in you. You made me feel comfortable being an Amica. You are A Finer Amica. Even my husband said that when he met you, she grew up around my hometown. I knew he liked you. Rest Well, Good and Faithful Servant. We will miss you always.

“ Momma, I miss you, my heart aches as I think I no longer have my best friend in the physical sense, BUT GOD knows best! You have earned your crown, your wings and your rightful place with out creator. We know you are whole again. Keep looking out for me, Jerrell, and your Grandgirls. We will forever love you and carry you EVERYWHERE we go. 💔
