“ Ms. Edith was a beautiful woman. I met her in September of 2024 when I moved in Suffolk and she welcomed me with open arms. Her love was genuine. Hennessey and oreo were her babies and she cared for them as such. Her son Corey was her world and she loved and talked about him so much. I know how ut feels to loose your mother just lean on God's hands. I'm praying for you and your family. Ms. Edith you have ran the race, you have fought the course and have won the reward and have gained your wings in heaven. Rest In Paradise Ms. Edith.

Love kesha and Chris.
