“ To Andrea and Michelle and family of Cousin Mccoy,

Nancy and I send you all our deepest sympathies for the loss of you father. I have the fondest memories of Mccoy along with his unmatched passion for barbecuing and playing cards. While growing up I remember his presence, love of family and laughter were always prevalent. He was deeply loved and his mark on our family memories will never be parted. As you are called home to our Heavenly Father, we will miss you Mccoy!

May God Bless you all and may He keep you near during your time of grief! We love you very much and you are in our prayers!
