“ Eugenia, Duke, & Shilda our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you prepare to lay your mom to rest. Ms Eveline was a sweet lady and she always had a hello and smile and would run over to Virginia's house and say hello to me when I came home to visit. Know that others are praying for you and share in your sorrow. God Bless and Keep You All!! Joyce (Cussy) and Roger Floyd Raleigh NC

“ May God keep the family strong in their hour of need. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal. I have some fond memories of Eveline, I know that she will be sadly missed, but the Master in in control. He knew that her load was getting heavy and she was too frail to bear the load alone. Be encouraged, we love each of you. It now our time to prepare for that great getting morning, when all God's children will shout the victory. God bless!!

Words cannot express Aunt Eveline how much you mean to me . You were my second mother as I was the oldest nephew then George E. I lived almost my entire life with you and thank God for you loving me as your son and caring for me. RIP knowing you will never be forgotten.

Death is not the end. Death can never be the end. Death is the road. Life is the traveler. It is not the length of life, but the depth of life. Aunt Eveline, "Lover", the name I gave you, because of the outpouring of love you always rendered to your family and others. Our hearts are aching with tears flowing. What it means to lose you , no one will ever know. If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane, We would walk right up to heaven and bring you home again. Aunt Eveline you will never be forgotten , I pledge to you a hallowed place in my heart. Thank you for loving me unconditionally and being a second mother to all your nieces and nephews. I will miss our 3:00pm. telephone conversations daily for 4 yrs. Your living was not in vain for u deposited so much kindness and love in so many people's lives. RIP Aunt Eveline and I will remember your last words to me, " I cannot wait to see you". You have earned your wings!
