“ How well do I remember Mrs. Evelyn Coleman as one of our teachers at the C. G. White School in Powellsville, NC. She was not only a wonderful teacher, but also a classy lady with a lovely attitude. I only have fond memories of her and how she loved the students she taught. My prayers and condolences to her family who are left to cherish her memories.

“ My tribal name is "The Danny" & my legal gov't name is Malcolm Angelo Moore -Harvey-Sexton. And, I am a cousin to this family. I would like to take this moment to express my sincere heartfelt sympathy & condolences to the Coleman-Walden-Richardson-Majette family. I remember cousin Evelyn Coleman as being a very beautiful, classy, intelligent, community oriented tough disciplinarian. And she had to be as a mother, who raise three sons. As, I delved into genealogy & ancestry a decade ago, I discovered just how we came to be family. My biological mother was Consuella Gayle Moore b. 1930. Consuella was the 7th child out of eleven children born to Richard Henry Moore b.1892 & Alice Saluda Walden Guy-Moore b.1895. Thus, cousin Evelyn's mother was cousin Joanna Walden b. 1897. Cousin Joanna Walden's father was John Thomas Walden b. abt 1859 who also had 10 siblings, and my biological mother's grandmother was John Thomas Walden's sister, a one Elizabeth "Bettie sue" Walden b. abt. 1873. John Thomas & Elizabeth "Bettie Sue" had 15 siblings...This brood consisted of 8 boys & 9 girls. I last saw cousin Evelyn a few years ago @ her home in R. Sq. NC before she moved to Durham NC. And, during this visit she was teasing me about gaining some weight. She laughed & scoffed when I retorted that I am just a little bit bigger & better. As, I reminisce, I am realizing how her three sons basically matched up in age with her cousin & my biological mother, Consuella's three sons, Shady Macon, Carl Malcolm & yours truly Malcolm Angelo(Danny). Wayne Coleman & I were classmates from first grade to 12th. I also fond memories playing a lot of basketball in the Roberts- Walden-Coleman's back yard, & traveling to Aulander, NC to take music lessons every Saturday with Mr. Ambrose. #RIP my dear cousin Evelyn Coleman. You will me missed immensely!

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family. Ms. Coleman was my third grade teacher and kept up with me even after graduating college. I still remember receiving letters from her checking on me. She was one of the sweetest teachers that ever taught me. I loved me some Ms. Coleman. This really saddens my heart to hear this news. May God comfort the family during this difficult time. RIP Ms. Coleman. You will never be forgotten.

“ My condolences to the family. Ms Coleman is the reason that I became a teacher. At the time (2nd or 3rd grade) I didn't know I wanted to be a teacher. All I knew was that I wanted to be just like Ms Coleman. She loved EVERYONE and made sure each one of her students had a love for learning. When I received my first honor of Teacher of the Year I dedicated my accomplishment and success in her honor. I've often thought about her and the strong impact she had on my life. She was truly an angel.
