“ My beautiful, sweet sister was always the life of the party and the most outgoing sibling in my family. She was always protective of me.
She loved people and didn't treat anyone like a stranger. She is already missed but we will forever keep her alive in our hearts. Sadly submitted, your knee baby sister, Doris

Terry, John, Doris, and the Wilkins family. You all have my condolences. Terry who's a classmate of mine, John whom I work with at NCDOT, and Doris who's my cousin by marriage, you all hold your heads up high and cherish the fun memories that you all shared together with her. Memories are so precious and sometimes help you get through some of the pain and sorrow. You all along with the Wilkins family keep praying and hold on to God's unchanging hands. Be blessed and know she was one of God's flowers that was ready to be picked.
