“ Your passing is hard and the shock was severe I never thought that your death was near. You made me a promise that you would never leave me even though I knew it was a promise you would not be able to keep, so I won't hold that against you. We shared special times together and I will always hold them in my heart. I'm ending this message as I always do with a kiss on your forehead and a I love you. We will miss you dearly

“ I well remember Mr. Gealone so fondly. So many good memories come to mind seeing him each week at my father's store, Vann's Red and White. I enjoyed talking with him about his rabbit dogs [he got me interested in beagles] and when I worked at WWDR radio station, hearing him sing gospel music with the Wiggins brothers and Jukie Daniel. May the Lord comfort his family.
