“ He was so excited to attend my graduation celebration, he said, "Yes niece. I'll be there." I was rushing the morning of my celebration and lost my debit card at the ATM and God allowed him to be the next person to utilize the ATM..he immediately called my dad *his brother* and said, "I got Keisha's card, she lost it at the bank." He placed it in my hands as soon as he saw me. He was always so full of smiles when I saw or talked with him. I will miss him!

*To the Booker family, may God keep you in this time of sorrow. We know he is in a better place. I remember George back in the 70's. My grandmother (Maggie Evans) loved him and so did we.

*I remember my prom night in 1972 my uncle George let me use his brand new car. I was in Elizabeth City and sprung the door of his car. where the door wouldn't close. When I got home that weekend all he said was "nephew are you ok" I said yeah. He said don't worry about, " that's what I got insurance for". Very dear to me . Very special Uncle.
