“ Aunt Helen ( Sunshine) the nickname I gave to you . Each time I entered your room, It was such a joy to see your glowing face and beautiful smile. Thank you for the wonderful and glorious time we spent together and all of the wisdom both wordly and spiritual you deposited into me.

I had no earthly idea that last Thursday was our last visit together. Rejoicing knowing we did what we always would at the end of our visit. Ended in prayer and we both said " I love you" holding hands and a kiss on your forehead.

At such an early age, during your visits to Murfreesboro, you were my role model, you were the wind beneath my wings that motivated me to dream big and soar like an eagle to achieve my dreams and to walk eloquently as a young woman in style and dress.

My heart is heavy but I truly thank God and your wonderful sons. George E.; Gerald; and Greg; for making the decisions the last journey of your life that brought happiness here on earth until God called you to your heavenly home. George E. Gerald and Greg, you demonstrated your deepest love for your mom . You guys were her world. She was so proud of you , your accomplishments, and most of all, her grandchildren .

We never said "goodbye" because even though you are not here in body, you will always live in our spirits. Proud to be the niece of such a Godly woman, who loved the Lord, knew God's word and lived it. You are a " Virtuous woman, far above rubies. Rest in Peace until we meet again.

Always in my thoughts and heart,
Niece , Gail
