“ Aunt Annie and Family, my heart is truly broken. Uncle Henry Lee was one of the kindest, funniest, and loving Uncles. He always had my back, one of my special memories was in Philadelphia when I was only 2 years old, Malcolm and I would be running up and down the stairs after my Dad (John Lee) got off work and Uncle Henry Lee saved me many times from a spanking, he would say "don't whip her Johnnie, come on Nette :)" I will always have very fond memories growing up with Uncle Henry and Aunt Annie's guidance and love. I love you all and I am praying your comfort and strength. Love, Annette (Nette-Nette) and Family.
