“ We extend our heartfelt condolences and Prayers to Mrs. Chamblee, Sis. Debbie and Brother Haywood Ray, siblings and all of your family. We Pray that God's Peace will comfort, strengthen and sustain you during this time and the days to come as you remember the beautiful memories and love you shared with your husband, father and all he was to each of you. You all took SUCH GOOD CARE of your Father and you Honored God by honoring your father in caring for him as he once cared for you.

" I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the Faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, shall give me at that day : and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing.

Family, take comfort that your loved one is in the presence of our Almighty and Loving God.

He fought a good fight and has now gone from labor to REWARD.

God Bless you all,
Tony and Gladys Smith, Raleigh, NC

“ James McKinley Chamblee lived eighty-eight years with purpose,
With laughter in his voice
And love in every gesture.

A father, grandfather,
Great-grandfather,
Uncle, brother, and friend—
So many roles,
Every one of them lived with grace.

He was loving, caring, wise—
Guided not only by experience,
But by faith.

God-fearing and steady,
He walked with the Lord,
Leaning on strength that did not fail.

He was a perfect example
Of how a life can shine
When it is rooted in love,
And grounded in God.

He taught without preaching,
Led without demanding,
And blessed without boasting.

Our GOAT—
The greatest of all time—
Not for trophies or the spotlight,
But for the way he lifted others,
And the way he made people feel seen.

We will miss him dearly,
Yet we do not grieve without hope.

*For love does not end,
And life in God is eternal.*

*Though he has gone ahead of us,
He remains near—
In our memories,
In our stories,
In our laughter,
And in the faith he passed down.*

*We give thanks for his journey,
For the time we were given,
And for the promise
That we will meet again.*

*He will be remembered, cherished, and loved—
Not only for what he did,
But for who he was.*

Well done, good and faithful servant.

*We love you.
We will miss you.
We will cherish every memory
And every moment we were blessed to have.*

Your grands and great grands!!!

“ Forever in Our Hearts to Our Dad

You were our first hero, our safe-haven, and our comforter when needed.

You taught us that strength is not from a loud voice but a deep and steady one.

You taught us that kindness is never wasted, to be honest in all we do.

You taught us the value of laughter and how it heals on the heaviest days.

We'll miss your warm smile and the wisdom of your words.

We'll miss how you make each moment a special one.

We are proud and grateful to be your children in so many ways.

We'll carry your heart within ours, honoring the way we live, we love, and how we show compassion, for others, by treating them just as you have taught us to be.

We'll love you Forever and For-always holding these memories dear and close in our hearts.

The children of James M Chamblee:

Linda, Allan, Debbie, & Cynthia
