“Fern, your family has my sincere sympathy. I remember your mother, Janie most of all because when you road my school bus while attending CS Brown. Janie watched her precious "gem" get on bus every morning and always took time to speak to me each morning. I wish every parent could show the interest in education that she exhibited for her daughters, granddaughter and the children of North Carolina. I am sure she will be missed so much more than we will ever know. God Bless you all..

Always

“My sincere condolences to you and your family. My prayers and thoughts are with you Taylor. When listening to you talk about your mother it brought joy and happiness to me as if I had known her. Taylor, God is with you and has never lefted your side. Be strong my sister because God has a way of giving you that inner peace that no one could ever imagine or understand.

*The hope we have in Jesus Christ
Brings joy into our heart;
And when we know the love of God,
His peace He will impart.*

“ Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late Janie Williams. Janie was a very quiet, mild-mannered lady who always had a warm smile and kind word to say. We used to talk about children and grandchildren when we worked together at AES. She loved you all and was always eager to share stories about you. (Fern, I always knew where you were and how you were doing). She was vvey proud of you all. Willie Mae, continue to be the warm, caring person you have always been. Cherish the memories of Janie. May God give you comfort during this time of bereavement.
