

Jean F. Wilson

December 28, 2011

Jean Floretta Wilson, 53, of Middletown, went to be with the Lord on Friday, December 23rd. Born in Ahoskie, North Carolina, she was the daughter of the late Lessie Wilson.

Jean had lived in Middletown since 1983, was a member of Mount Olive Church of Christ in Middletown and was very active singing with the church's choir. She worked at Wadsworth Glen Healthcare Center for sixteen years and prior to that at Cromwell Crest Convalescent Home. She was a single parent who raised her son independently on her own. Jean attended church faithfully all of her life, enjoyed reading many books especially the Bible and loved writing and reading poetry.

She is survived by her son, Miguel Wilson of Middletown; four brothers, Zac Wilson of NC, Tommy Wilson of Maryhill, NC, Clarence Holley of NJ and Lonzele Perry of Middletown; three sisters, Alicia Perry of Colerain, NC, Juanita Bailey of Raleigh, NC and Brenda Bass of Raleigh, NC and her Aunt Ruth of Edenton, NC.

Along with her mother, she was predeceased by her brother, Walter Wilson and her foster mother, Grace Perry.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, December 30th at 12:00pm at Cross

Street AME Zion Church, 440 West Street, Middletown with Rev. Elder Mitchell Wynn officiating. Funeral services will also take place at Hunter's Funeral Home Chapel, Ahoskie, NC on Tuesday, January 3, 2012 at 11:00 AM. Burial will be at Roundtree Temple Cemetery.
