“ Some people walk through this world quietly, leaving behind a trail of kindness that lasts far longer than their footsteps.

Mr. Jesse Lee Weaver was one of those rare souls.

To Sherri Weaver-Russell, Demetrius, Lamar, the Weaver Family, and all who loved him, he was more than a good man, he was a steady presence, a source of comfort, and a reminder that goodness still exists in this world.

He showed his family what strength looks like, not through loud moments, but through everyday acts of love, patience, and devotion.

His community knew him as a man who gave more than he took, who lifted others without needing to be asked, and who carried himself with quiet dignity. His family knew him as home.

Though his absence is heavy, his love remains in the stories shared, the lessons he taught, and the lives he shaped, to include my life, too from a teenager to an adult.

His spirit stays woven into the hearts of those who carry his memory forward.

May his life continue to shine through the people he loved most.

Forever honored. Forever missed. Forever loved.

“ Sherri, thank you for sharing your dad with us as Charlie, and I'm humbled to be blessed as one of his angels forever. I'm overflowing with treasured memories of him that will forever dwell within me. He lovingly welcomed me with open arms like his own daughter, and I'll deeply cherish the memory of his thoughtful calls on my birthday and his caring checks when I traveled to and from work - he was a towering figure of kindness with a heart that shone like gold, a man of unshakeable integrity, and a boundless wealth of wisdom. I will eternally treasure the glorious times spent together. Love you my bestie for life.
