“ Jill and I met when we were little girls, taking swimming lessons at what was then Chowan College. Jill always had a sweet smile, charming personality and the ability to make you laugh. While in high school, she and I were in the Murfreesboro High School Band. When I was in twelfth grade and she in tenth, Jill was one of the friends with whom I ate lunch. She always kept us laughing! Years later, we would chat on Facebook and reminisce about our childhood days. Her sense of humor helped me through some difficult times, and seeing Jill display her gift as an actress was inspiring. I was so proud of her. I am so thankful that Jill was a part of my life. Rest In Peace, Dear Friend.
