“ I met Jimmy almost forty(40) years ago, when I moved from Jamaica, New York, to Bertie County! He was dating my first cousin, Theresa Sessoms, at the time. As the years passed, Jimmy’s personality and charisma never changed. He never Switched up on me, and I was always greeted with a smile, and friendly conversation, whenever we ran into each other, usually in Ahoskie! He loved his children and grandchildren. He would always end our conversations with “It was good to see you!” I can truly say that it was “great knowing him.” My prayers are with his entire family! I know about the “sting of Death” being a Bitter pill to Swallow! Take your Rest, Jimmy! Your work Here, has been Completed! 🙏
