“ Ms Ping would often tell me the story of how we first met. I was six years old starting the first grade. Pig tails and a brown dress. She knew me before I knew myself. Later in life she would help me raise my three children. My heart is broken.; but, Ms Ping knew God. And she's now resting. My condolences to the family.

“ My deepest condolences and prayers go out to June and her family. Losing your mom is truly one of the hardest things to deal with. But the Bible gives us hope and comfort that one day soon, God will do away with death forever (Revelations 21:4) May God continue to comfort you during this difficult time. ❤️
