“ Karen, this seems so not real at the moment, but it something we all have to do. I just wasn't expecting to here you had answered your last call. We've always been like family most of our lives and shared nothing but love for one another. I will cherish our sweet memories forever and ever. Gonna miss you my beautiful friend. Always right here❤️, love Robin D

“ Karen was a beautiful lady inside and out. My husband, Deacon Alphonso Jones, Sr. and myself, Rev. Laverne Wilder Jones loved her very much, and she loved us. She never left a church service without a hug and a kiss from us. My last time seeing her was March 23, 2025, when I preached at Mill Branch, and I sang "My Soul Has Been Anchored in The Lord." Her Aunt Annie shared with me that Karen truly enjoyed it. Rest on sweet Karen and take your rest. We all loved you, but God loved you best. With our deepest sympathy, Deacon Alphonso & Rev. Laverne Wilder Jones.
