“ WOW -- Can't believe you're gone girl! Looks like you followed my Mother on into Glory. Besides our fellow classmate Shamon Barkley, you were the only NCHSE c/o 88' graduate to come by on the day she (my mother) passed. You actually showed up with 2 hours of her passing, parked your car on the side of HWY 258 and walked on the lawn to ask what could you do to help. I value that. I'll see you off on Sunday at former Creecy Elementary girl. At least we did get to worship together at Willow Oak on Easter Sunday. You're in heaven now, undoubtedly -- so hold the fort down until the rest of NSHS-E arrives.##imported-begin##Theodore Latham Jr##imported-end##

“ Words cannot begin to express my deepest sympathy for your lost. My heart is heavy and I am still in dismay of Karla's passing. Although I had not seen her in years, her voice and smile is so crystal clear to me. From the times she has given me advice to her trying to pronounce my daughter's name. The funny thing about it was, it wasn't really difficult, she just got a kick out of doing it. I can also remember hearing Karla before she entered the house (smile). She had a beautiful smile and spirit that will forever remain with me and I will miss her.

Jaz and Mo' - I cannot imagine what the two of you are going through but just know she is finally home and watching over the two of you. ---

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also...John 14: 1-6###imported-begin##Tracy Williams###imported-end##
