“ I am deeply sorry for your loss of Kaylen. The loss of a loved one is quite hard to handle. Even though this is a difficult time for your family, please have faith that God can help us to cope with any trials and heartache that we may have. There will be a time when God will make the Earth a paradise and will bring back all those in his memory back to life. What a wonderful time that will be when we can enjoy loved ones come back to life. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.
