“ To the family of my beloved "Cleo".if every church or the world for that matter, had a Cleo Pulley. . . .what a better church and world we would have.

Such an inspiration, witty, compassionate and loving. . .this was "Cleo"! During my tenure as Minister of Music at Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church, I had the honor of serving alongside Cleo and she never went against anything I was doing for the ministry, never a cross word or disagreement, always smiling with such a warm personality. . .that was Cleo.

May you, her family, be comforted in knowing that I, along with so many others, share your grief and offer my sincere condolences.

I regret that I cannot share on tomorrow in the Celebration of Life, but I will keep you in prayer at the celebration hour.

Respectfully,

*Augustus C. Cofield, Jr.
