“ Lois,

Your sudden departure left a void in our hearts. However, faith tells us absent from the body, present with the Lord. Today, I join in spirit with other family members, neighbors, and friends to celebrate your life and legacy. As you stepped from 'time' to 'eternity', it is comforting to know your welcoming committee consisted of many who loved you on earth and joined in that "great cloud of witnesses" who welcomed you home. Until we meet again, our hearts will not be troubled, we believe the promises of God made in our precious Savior, Jesus Christ.

Love,

Edith
