“ There aren't any words that can began to express the loss of a loved one. I will say Lorenzo was a very dear friend in my younger years. I frequently went to family home in Hampton, VA. All the family was there at that time smile, we had very good times, playing cards, joking and just sitting around watching tv, chatting with the friends that came and went. From early age to teen years to adulthood. We grew up and went on with life. I will remember Lorenzo, as I knew him, happy, full of life and laughter. You will be missed.

“ Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Matthew 5:4

Out of the place where grief is the deepest, through every shadow, may you walk in God's presence, gently and graciously led by His light and comforted by His promises.

In Sympathy and Prayer,
