“ My deepest condolences to the family. I was saddened to hear of his passing today. Will miss him. I knew him from the Gates trash facility. Have many memories of numerous conversations over the years and years up there. We looked forward to seeing him each week or more when we went. He told me he traveled the world and about his wife and family. He comforted me in my 2 recent deaths of family members. He sometimes spoke of the cancer he had and how he was in stage 4 and he wasn't going to sit around and worry about it. It was in Gods hands!! He was such an inspiration to me and just wanted to share this with all. (I wanted to send a card but looked this up and hope his family sees it)

Sincerely,
Dawn Glass

“ Dear Family of Luequency Taylor,

I am writing to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one.

You can be assured that comfort and hope are found in the pages of the Bible.

The bible book of Revelations 21:4 speaks of this hope for the future, for all who deal with grief :

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more,

neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.

The former things have passed away.”

I hope these promises from GOD will bring a measure of comfort, please keep those memories of yourloved one close.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Sandi Watkins
