“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ *To Sherri and Keith:
I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your father. I know you have had both parents make their transition within 5 months of each other. This must be a challenging time for the both of you but keep in mind that God loves you and he never leaves you and most of all know that the spirit of your parents will always be with you. My prayers are for God's continued blessings at this time of grief.
Loving,
Mary Lou*
