“ To my adorable, cousin, Kitty. That is what I called you all your life. You look so much like Grandma Maddie Manley, and your smile is just as big and wonderful as hers as well. I am going to miss all the good times we had growing up together. You have gone on now, leaving me as the oldest cousin alive. I will keep you forever deep in my heart, and therefore your sweet memories will live on forever.

With my most profound love, your cousin, Yvonne Manley Brown

“ In loving memory of my niece, and our cousin, Maiza, we are so grateful we got to see and spend time with you at Margaret’s birthday celebration in NC. This was the last time we saw you, and the pictures we took with you will forever hold a very special place in our hearts. As you have now put on your new Angel wings, we wish your soul much peace as you begin your new adventures. You are finally reunited with your mom, dad, and all your siblings.

To Joye, John, and the grandchildren, what a blessing you were to your mother/mother-in-law/grandmother. We wrap our arms of love around each of you and thanks so much for taking such good care of her.

With all our love, Aunt Doris (the last living aunt), and cousins, Chris, Pam, Monique, and our families.

“ Ms. Maiza, this is so hard to write. I cannot believe you aren’t here with us. Thank you so much for all the laughs, smiles, blushes and love you gave to me, especially after my mom passed. It meant so much, it meant the world to me. Thank you so much for introducing me to the honeybun cake! Whew, Joye tried but hers isn’t as good as yours. You will be missed, I promise I will keep your JOYe close. Sorrowfully submitted, Jasmine E. Anthony
