“ My "Aunt Lucille" was a loving, kind and devoted person who encouraged her family members to always have faith and hope. She truly dedicated her life to caring for others. As a child, I always looked forward to spending summers in North Carolina to be with my aunts, grandparents and other relatives. Aunt Lucille taught me manners, how to pray, sing religious hymns -- and how to cook. These basic lessons enriched my life. Thanks, Aunt Lucille. I wish you peace, rest and glory in Heaven.
